COMPANY HISTORY
Briza Publications is a small, independent publishing house based in Gauteng, South Africa.
It was started in 1990 with the sole purpose of publishing an identification guide to grasses of South Africa. Now in its third edition, Guide to Grasses of Southern Africa is still a perennial bestseller!
From these humble beginnings Briza has grown into a leading publisher of books on botany in South Africa.

OUR BUSINESS
We specialise in publishing titles on botany and natural history for the local and international market. All our titles are of high quality, have a practical approach and the content is highly informative.

STRATEGY AND VISION

VISION STATEMENT
To be the major publisher of titles on botany and natural history in South Africa, and to export our books and expertise globally.

MISSION STATEMENT
To provide our authors with excellent service by creating outstanding products, and develop and promote their profiles.
To provide excellent service by accurate and timely delivery of our clients' orders.
To run a sustainable, financially viable and inspiring company to the satisfaction of its owners.
To promote awareness for conservation, and appreciation of our wonderful natural heritage.

VALUES
To achieve our goals with uncompromised honesty and integrity.
To cherish our rich natural diversity, and promote responsible use of our natural resources.
